and carry of each

The Deputy Comr states that the Amildar reports that the two temples were that inspected by him and that they are very ancient and renovated but neglected ~~shaky~~ ones. It is further reported that they are in a dilapidated condition, that no contribution from the devotees can be expected for their repairs and that no amount is available at the credit of the Sri Bhojangeswara & Ranganatha Swami temples. The Amildar proposes that the cost of the repairs, viz, Rs 3500/- may be met from the funds of the Sri Chamarajeswara Swami temple at Chamarajanagar

As the temples have no funds at their credit and as no contributions are expected from the devotees, the Deputy Comr is not in favour of recommending the repairs out of the funds proposed by the Amildar -

Submitted for orders

What are the Kandikes of these temples? Do they own any lands? and if so, what is the income therefrom?

SIR,

In reply to your o.m. No. 5763 dated 12.6.1907 calling for the submission of a report regarding the repairs to Bhujangeswara and Ranganatha Swami temples at Nanjanagud in the Chamarajnagar Taluk, I have the honor to state that the amildar after inspection of the temples in question reports that the two temples are very ancient and renowned ones and to be in a neglected condition.

2. No funds are reported to be at the credit of the temples and the ryots are unable to contribute any funds towards the repairs.

3. The amildar recommends the the repairs of these temples at a total cost of Rs 350/- from the funds of the Sri Chamarajeswara Swami Temple at Chamarajnagar.

4. As the temples in question have no funds at their credit and as no contributions are expected I am however not in favour of recommending the repairs out of the funds of the Sri Chamarajeswara Swami temple.

5. Petn Regd No: 1456 received with the o.m. under reply is herewith returned.

6. The file of papers received with the Sub Division officer's yadi no. 148/428 dated the 3/7 January 1908 is also herewith submitted for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
